2. How can I take the IBBI - Valuation Examination?

You need to go through three stages for taking the examination and follow instructions given on the screen at every stage:

Stage I: Please visit <http://ibbi.gov.in/ValuationExamination.html>, click on the relevant asset class, and Click on 'Register/Enrol for Exam' button. You will be taken to "Candidate registration form". Please provide your email address and identity details, set a password, upload your photograph and scan copies of documents and then submit the form online. This is a one-time registration. Hereafter, you can access the examination system with your user id which is your email address and the password you have set at the time of registration. You can change the password whenever you like.

Stage II: You decide when you would like to take the examination. Then visit <http://ibbi.gov.in/ValuationExamination.html> to enrol yourself for the examination. You need to select 'IBBI-Valuation Examination', click on the relevant asset class, click on "Register/Enrol Online" link and access the system with user ID created in Stage I to choose the time and the day when you would like to take the examination and also choose the examination centre from where you would like to take the examination. After selecting time, day and centre, please pay examination fee of Rs.1500 online by using Credit Card / Debit Card / Net Banking. Thereafter, you can download your Admit Card for the examination.

Stage III: Please carry your Printout of Admit Card, original PAN Card/Aadhar Card/Passport and arrive 30 minutes before the scheduled time at the examination centre. Please note that without the Admit Card and the Original Photo Identity proof (mentioned above), candidate/s shall not be permitted to appear for the Examination.

If you do not submit the answer paper earlier, the paper will be auto submitted by the system on expiry of two hours. Immediately on submission of the answer paper or expiry of two hours, whichever is earlier, a temporary mark sheet would be displayed on the computer screen indicating the marks you have scored in the examination. If you score 60 marks or above, you are declared successful in the examination. In that case, you would be issued a pass certificate by the IBBI within 30 days of the examination. You would be eligible to apply for registration as a Registered Valuer with the temporary mark sheet and you need not wait to get the pass certificate from the IBBI.

If you do not pass the examination and wish to take the examination again, you need to repeat stage II and stage III, as many times as you wish.

13. Can I request for re-evaluation of my answer paper?

Since the candidate's responses are checked by computer without any human intervention, no re-evaluation is allowed. Subject to this, request/s received from a candidate for resolution of doubts about a question forming part of examination will be considered as per the following policy:

- a. Candidate's request/s will be considered only when he/she specifically mentions a particular question or at best two questions which he/she thinks contain errors. Claim/s to recheck more than two questions shall not be permitted unless the substantive material is provided by the candidate as to why he/she considers errors in such questions.
- b. No request/s to disclose/discuss question/s and/or their answers shall be entertained as disclosure of the question/s will violate the integrity of the question bank, namely, breach the confidentiality/secretcy of the question bank.
- c. Only those request/s made on-the-spot (before leaving the test centre) will be considered for verification.
- d. When a request is received from a candidate at the test centre, it shall be forwarded by the respective Test Administrator to BSE.
- e. Such matter will then be escalated with the question/answer to the IBBI with the details of the nature of the error, the correct version of the question or contested correct answer and system recognized correct answer. IBBI, after due diligence and proper scrutiny, will arrive at a conclusion whether the claim made by a candidate in relation to a question or answer is right.

- f. Score computation, kept in abeyance as per point (d), shall be carried based on the approval as per point (e). Such score card will then be issued to the candidate by Test Administrator.
- g. The above policy and process will be subject to review from time to time and shall be binding and final in relation to any claim and/or matter when disposed of with the approval of the authority of IBBI.

14. What are the consequences if a candidate indulges in malpractice in examination?

Any candidate found indulging in malpractice shall be debarred from taking any examination with IBBI, notwithstanding any other action that the Board may take.
