The amount of claim of INR 1,25,60,36,505 has not been admitted by the IRP and an IA No. 685 of 2022 was filed by the claimant. The said matter is disposed by the Hon'ble NCLT Mumbai Bench vide order dated December 07, 2023, on account of withdrawal of application by TDH Realty LLP.

Note 2:

As per the Joint Venture Agreement, the Corporate Debtor had to make staggered payment to Safe Citi Developers Private Limited (Safe Citi), wherein certain payments have been made by the Corporate Debtor to Safe Citi. Your claim of INR 2,49,00,000 submitted in Form C is inadmissible as an Operational Debt on the following grounds supported by judgements:

- a. In the case of S. M Builders and Developers vs Ramee Constructions Private Limited; the National Company Law Tribunal (Mumbai) has dealt with the scope of Section 5(21) and the Hon'ble Tribunal defined Operational Debt as a claim in respect of the "Provision of goods or services including employment, or a debt in respect of the repayment of dues arising under any law for the time being in force and payable to the Central Government, any State Government or any local authority". The bench held that the Petitioner was a Joint Venture Partner with the Corporate Debtor and had not made any claim in respect of the provision of goods or services. Furthermore, the debt claimed therein did not arise under any law for the time being in force payable to Central Government or State Government. Therefore, it was of the view that the Petitioner did not come within the meaning of "Operational Creditor as defined under sub-section 20 read with sub-section 21 of Section 5 of the Code which is a prerequisite for triggering insolvency under the Code".
- b. The aforesaid case also referred M/s. Sree Sankeshwara Foundation and Investments vs. M/s Dugar Housing limited, wherein the NCLAT made a similar observation that both the Resolution Applicant and Corporate Debtor being parties to a joint venture project, the Applicant could not claim to be "Operational Creditor" as the debt claimed did not relate to supply of goods nor service rendered by the Appellant.

Note 3:

The claim submitted in the Form C is on the basis of Joint Venture Agreement dated 5 August 2008 as well as the Development Agreement dated 10 March 2013. Besides the above-mentioned documents, you have also relied upon the Society Development Agreement dated 14 January 2004, the Society Power of Attorney dated 14 February 2004, Slum Authority LOI dated 30 June 2005 and the Slum Authority revised LOI dated 10 May 2021. As per the Development Agreement, the Corporate Debtor had to make staggered payment to Safe Home Developers and Contractors (Safe Home), wherein certain payments have been made by the Corporate Debtor to Safe Home. Your claim of INR 13,21,32,336 submitted in Form C is inadmissible as an Operational Debt on the following grounds supported by judgements:

- a. In the case of S. M Builders and Developers vs Ramee Constructions Private Limited; the National Company Law Tribunal (Mumbai) has dealt with the scope of Section 5(21) and the Hon'ble Tribunal defined Operational Debt as a claim in respect of the "Provision of goods or services including employment or a debt in respect of the repayment of dues arising under any law for the time being in force and payable to the Central Government, any State Government or any local authority". that the Petitioner was a Joint Venture Partner with the Corporate Debtor and had not made any claim in respect of the provision of goods or services. Furthermore, the debt claimed therein did not arise under any law for the time being in force payable to Central Government or State Government. Therefore, it was of the view that the Petitioner did not come within the meaning of "Operational Creditor as defined under sub-section 20 read with sub-section 21 of Section 5 of the Code which is a prerequisite for triggering insolvency under the Code".

- b. The aforesaid case also referred M/s. Sree Sankeshwara Foundation and Investments vs. M/s Dugar Housing limited, wherein the NCLAT made a similar observation that both the Resolution Applicant and Corporate Debtor being parties to a joint venture project, the Applicant could not claim to be "Operational Creditor" as the debt claimed did not relate to supply of goods nor service rendered by the Appellant.
