INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY BOARD OF INDIA

ANNOUNCES

SEMINAR ON THE OCCASION OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

International Women's Day, originally called International Working Women's Day, is celebrated on 8th March annually.

Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India proposes to celebrate International Women's Day by organising a half day Seminar on the lines of this year's United Nations theme I am Generation Equality: Realizing Women's Rights on Sunday, the 8th March, 2020 at India Habitat Centre, New Delhi.

OBJECTIVE

Equality is not only a women's issue, but it has socio-economic consequences. Gender equality is sine qua non for economic progress of communities. There is a direct nexus between economic status of women and gender equality. A gender equal world is healthier, wealthier and essential for harmonious co-existence.

Seminar will discuss women's role in India in the new thriving professions such as Insolvency Profession and Valuer Profession. It will focus on women's empowerment in these areas and their probable challenges while acting as such.

DELEGATES

Women Insolvency Professionals and Registered Valuers.

Since the number of seats are limited, intake of the participants shall be chosen as per expression of interest in the Annexure attached on first come first serve basis.
